A BUSY MONTH!

October is always a busy month at Shiloh New Site: Clergy Appreciation Month, Homecoming, Fall Revival, Church Meeting, plus continuing the work of ministry within the Church and the community. We started the month with the Diaconate and the Minister Wives and Minister Widows Ministry sponsoring Clergy Appreciation Month, encouraging members to shower ministers with cards, gifts and other expressions of appreciation for their dedicated work of preaching and teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

We celebrated Homecoming 2021 on October 17th under a Homecoming and Fall Revival theme that encourages us in the midst of a pandemic, "Overcoming with Our Faith in God," taken from Isaiah 41:10, "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." Pastor John L. Saunders of Emanuel Baptist Church, Orange, VA, and a son of Shiloh, served as our guest preacher. Pastor Saunders delivered a powerful message of encouragement, "Go in God's Strength" from 1 Kings 17:1-16. We continued into our Fall Revival, October 18-20 with Pastor Jonathan Wade of Macedonia Baptist Church of Baltimore City, Baltimore, MD as our revivalist. Pastor Wade offered three insightful and timely sermons: October 18, "Don't Lose Baby Jesus" (Luke 2:41-52); October 19, "A Divine Encounter" (Matthew 17:1-9); and October 20, "It's Getting Dark Outside" (Luke 22:39-46). Throughout each Homecoming and Fall Revival worship experience, we were blessed by the presence of God and wonderful musical offerings, preaching, worship and fellowship with in-person and virtual worshipers from Shiloh New Site, Emanuel, Macedonia and other congregations. We thank God for the experience of worship and the participation of all involved in planning and executing these services.

During our October 28th Church meeting, we donated $25,000 to Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Society, Inc. to support global emergencies, established a Media/Technical Ministry Leader position to manage our virtual worship needs, expanded the role of the Sexton into a Facilities Services Supervisor to meet the requirements under COVID-19, approved the budget for 2022, introduced our new Church website, slated to be launched in November 2021, and updated the membership on the pastor search process. For the pastor search process, a survey designed to solicit members' expectations for the Office of Pastor was presented to the membership. That survey, with changes recommended by the attendees, will be distributed in November.

We plan to continue inviting guest ministers to preach and worship with us on the 2nd Sunday of each month while we await a new pastor. These ministers are not being presented as proposed candidates for the Office of Pastor but invited to allow us (1) to offer space between preaching engagements for our Associate Ministers, and (2) to give the congregation an opportunity to hear other preaching voices while the Office of Pastor is vacant.

In all these activities, we are grateful God has given us grace as a congregation to remain on one accord, even growing together in the midst of a pandemic, the vacancy in the Office of Pastor, and the transition to in-person and virtual worship and study. But we recognize all that busyness can put the focus on activity instead of our relationship with God through Jesus Christ. But we have been empowered with time of revival, 40 days of prayer and fasting to meditate on the Word of God, and worship under our Associate Ministers throughout the month. October was a busy month, but we pray it has been a spiritually fruitful month that will allow us to grow in grace and the knowledge of Christ as a Savior!

As we move forward, we ask Shiloh New Site to continue in prayer at noon daily and fast each Wednesday (in whatever method works best for you) until the day a pastor is installed. We also encourage members to update their contact information as well as sign up for the Shiloh Membership Broadcast in order to stay informed of happenings in your Church Family. Please contact your deacons or the Church Office (540-371-1153) for assistance in updating your information.

May we press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus!

Patiently correct, rebuke, and encourage your people with good teaching. For a time is coming when people will no longer listen

2 Timothy 4:2-3 NLT

INDEBTED TO A VAST HOST

Howard Washington Thurman (November 18, 1899 – April 10, 1981) was one of the greatest American religious figures of the 20th century. Thurman's theology of radical nonviolence influenced and shaped a generation of civil rights activists, and he was a key mentor to leaders of the Civil Rights Movement, including Martin Luther King Jr. Thurman was a well-known theological writer and this month we feature "Indebted to a Vast Host," a meditation from his 1953 book, "Meditations of the Heart."

"He was a very ordinary-looking man walking along the sidewalk. It was at the close of day but darkness had not yet begun to spread its mantle everywhere. About three feet from the curbstone, a group of birds was pecking away at a small opening in the side of a pink paper bag. They were quarreling as they pecked because there must have been many suggestions being offered as to the best way to get to the crumbs that were hidden there. The man walked over to the spot; the birds took rapid flight, settling at a respectful distance in the grass watching. With his foot he turned the bag over, examined it with some care, then reached down and emptied the bag and its contents of bread crumbs. When he had done this, he resumed his walk. As soon as he disappeared, the birds returned to find that a miracle had taken place. Instead of a bag full of hidden crumbs, only a glimpse of which they had seen, there was before them now a full abundance for satisfying their need. The man had gone on his way without even a backward glance. Of course he could have walked away casting his glances back to feast his eyes on the results of his effort. Or he could have withdrawn far enough so as not to disturb the birds, and watched them eat while he congratulated himself because he was kind to birds and extremely sensitive to their needs. But he did none of these things. He went on his way without even a backward glance. Any careful scrutiny of one's own life will reveal the fact that we have been in the predicament of the birds again and again. The thing one needed was somewhat in evidence but out of reach. With all of one's resources, one worked away at the opening, trying first one attack and then another; then some stranger, some unknown writer, some passing comment from another, did the needful thing. We are all of us indebted to a vast host of anonymous persons without whom some necessity would not have been available, some good which came to us, we would have missed. It is not too farfetched to say that living is itself an act of interdependence. However strong we may be or think we are, we are constantly leaning on others. However self-sufficient we are, our strength is always being supplied by others unknown to us whose paths led them down our street or by our house at the moment that we needed the light they could give. We are all of us the birds and we are all of us the man. It is the way of life; it is one of the means by which God activates Himself in the texture of human life and human experience.”

Nearly 70 years later, “Indebted to a Vast Host” is still applicable to our living. Despite our individual efforts, we are limited in what we can achieve on our own; and that is by design. We are positioned at the time and place of need to assist others through acts of kindness and compassion. And, we are the beneficiaries of that same support from others in our time and place of need. These moments in which we give and receive support are part of God’s intentional plan that weaves each person’s gifts and contributions, their weaknesses and challenges together in a tapestry of community that we cannot achieve alone. We are all indebted to countless people who have interceded, prayed, supported, encouraged, counseled, and befriended us. Any success we achieve is a result of God’s grace, even the grace provided through God using others to be the quiet instrument of help and encouragement in our most difficult times.

“Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.”—1 Thessalonians 5:11

Prayer: God, I accept that no one is an island unto themselves. I put aside the pressure to be self-reliant and I embrace my dependence on You and those You use to support me. In turn, I make myself available to extend goodwill to others without a need for validation of my efforts. I am thankful for the opportunity to use my gifts and allow others to use their gifts to bless all and advance Your Kingdom. Amen.

Shiloh Baptist Church (New Site) Fall Revival 2021

Our annual Fall Revival was held Monday through Wednesday, October 18 – 20, 2021. Members, friends, and guests were able to join us for in-person worship or join us via zoom, Facebook, or YouTube. The Revival Theme was Overcoming: With Our Faith in God. The Revival Scripture was from Isaiah 41:10 (KJV) "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." Each day we all desire to walk just a little closer with God, so we chose Just a Closer Walk with Thee as our Revival Hymn.

God sent his anointed servant, Pastor Jonathan M. Wade, as our Revival preacher. Pastor Wade is the Pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church of Baltimore City, Baltimore, Maryland. On the first night of revival, Pastor Wade informed us that this was his first revival preaching engagement. We can honestly say how honored we were to be the first to witness how God used him to deliver powerful messages each night. In each message, God revealed ways we should consider His Will for our lives so that we can draw closer to Him; and position ourselves to help others to do the same. Pastor Wade's parents, Brother Leroy and Sister Gleniss Wade joined him for our revival services.

On Monday night, Pastor Wade spoke from Luke 2:41-52 with his sermon titled, "Don't Lose Baby Jesus". How do you lose or leave Jesus? Sometimes in our lives we will leave Jesus when we make our Faith routine. We must be intentional about our Faith and not just go through the motions because then we will miss Jesus. Jesus can be found in places where different opinions are expressed. We must welcome all who enters the house of the Lord. We will miss God when we do not learn to grow in His will. We must be patient with ourselves and with others as we grow. Growing is a process. Can we be patient enough to allow God to grow us? We must learn to wait on the Lord and in doing so, not lose baby Jesus.

Then, on Tuesday night Pastor Wade's message was "A Divine Encounter," coming from Matthew 17:1-9. We know the stories of Moses and his Divine Encounters. We all desire a Divine Encounter of our own but may not want to put in the effort. We must first seek God. We must spend time with God to receive a Divine Encounter. We must humble ourselves, as Jesus did, when he prayed. We expect God to show up so we must put in the effort – in our quiet-time with God and in devotional time – because some things GOD reveals to us only in private or when we are alone with Him. A Divine Encounter with God is a start of a movement and must not be made into a monument. It's a prompt to get you moving and doing for God. Has a Divine Encounter changed you?

On Wednesday the last night of our revival service, Pastor Wade preached from Luke 22:39-46 using as his sermon title, "It's Getting Dark Outside." In this chapter of Luke, we see Jesus is off by Himself in a secluded place, in a dark place, a dark time and a dark moment. Just as Jesus had a moment of darkness in His life, we too will face dark moments. What do we do when God no longer grants us favor?

What do we do when God does not heal us or our loved ones? God never promised us that life as a Christian would be easy. When we overcome those trials, fully relying on Him then we are in line to receive the treasures that God has promised us. Sometimes it is going to be our time to walk through the valley. Scripture says that Jesus taught in the temple during the day and at night

He went out to pray. Jesus stayed consistent in the midst of dark moments. When it is getting dark for us, when we are going through trials, it is time to pray. We must go to God for ourselves. We must make decisions only after we have first had counsel with God in prayer. Prayer keeps us from rushing. Prayer connects us to the Divine. Prayer changes things. In Jesus' dark moments, He knew the importance of staying connected to God. In our weaknesses and trials, God hears our prayers and makes us strong.

If you were unable to join us for revival or if you would like to hear those powerful messages again, then you are able to listen as many times as you would like. Just click this link to take you to the Shiloh New Site Podcast. Scroll down to see the revival service for each night, click, and enjoy God's blessings.

PROTOCOLS FOR SBC(NS) CHURCH MEETINGS

Just as we have a Security Ministry to protect us within our physical buildings, we need to maintain security in our virtual environment, especially as we discuss sensitive topics and conduct business on behalf of the Church. To confirm attendance by the appropriate audience and ensure security is in place, the following protocols will be used for virtual SBC(NS) Church meetings.

1. Virtual meeting links and telephone information will not be posted on the Church website. Instead, it will be distributed only through the Shiloh Membership Broadcast (SMB). Therefore, members are highly encouraged to sign up for the SMB.
2. Assuming a quorum has been achieved, meetings will begin on time. To accommodate that goal, members are asked to join Church meetings up to 15 minutes prior to the meeting start time.
3. Upon entering the session, attendees will be automatically placed in a "Waiting Room" until the Online Security Team confirms the attendee's identity. Please be patient during that process.
4. Attendees are asked to show their screen names while in the meeting. The Online Security Team will insert screen names for those attending by telephone or those who cannot insert names themselves.
5. The Online Security Team will ask unknown attendees to identify themselves three times. If no response is given or if the individual(s) is recognized as not being a member of SBC(NS), the attendee(s) will be removed from the meeting. If an attendee feels they have been removed in error, they should call the number provided in the SMB message to gain access to the meeting. The attendee will be asked to provide their name and the device being used for verification.
6. When possible, voting will be by the Zoom Poll function. To ensure all attendees are treated equally, whether attending on screen or by telephone, the vote will be based on the question read to the meeting attendees.
7. Voting.
 - a. Votes will be conducted by Zoom Poll first, tallied by the Online Security Team.
 - b. In cases where multiple members are on a screen at the same time, one attendee may vote by Zoom Poll and the other(s) members may vote through the Chat function. The Online Security Team will tally the Chat votes.
 - c. The Church Clerk will take the voice vote of telephone callers. The Church Clerk will conduct the final tally based on his/her counts and input from the Online Security Team for the Poll and Chat votes.
8. Attendees are asked to advise the Online Security Team and/or the Church Clerk if they are using more than one device during a meeting. Please designate the device being used to vote and use that method of voting throughout the meeting.

WHY I SHOP AT THE FREDERICKSBURG FOOD CO-OP

(reprinted from CO-OP October Newsletter)

Anna Griffin appreciates the great produce and bulk bin selection at the Co-op and urges everyone to check it out.

Anna finds new products in the Deals flyer.

Please tell us a bit about yourself.

I have been a resident of the City of Fredericksburg for over 25 years. Having lived in rural North Carolina as a child, I wanted my young children to have the experience of a family-oriented town, their own backyard to play in with plenty of trees and grass. Let us not forget the bonus of a shorter commute to work at the Quantico Marine Base. Growing up in North Carolina with my grandmother, we always had a huge garden and many fruit trees. I retired after 31 years of service with the Federal Government. My husband Stephen and I are active members of Shiloh Baptist Church (New Site) in Fredericksburg. We have been married over 14 years and have three adult children and one grandchild.

When did you first hear about the Co-op?

My husband and I became interested in learning more about the Co-op in late 2019. We got on the mailing list and had the pleasure on several occasions to speak with various Co-op members, especially at the Fredericksburg Farmer's Market. In July 2020, we decided it was a wonderful opportunity to become Co-op owners.

What are your favorite products at the Co-op?

My two favorite areas at the store are the produce section and the bulk items in the bins. As soon as you walk in, the beautiful array of fresh fruit and vegetables catch your eye. We like being able to get just the amount of grains and nuts that we need from the bins. I also enjoy trying new products advertised in the Co-op Deals sales flyer.

What do you love most about the Co-op?

We enjoy being a part of a community-owned grocery store that not only provides shoppers with healthy food choices from local growers, but also promotes continuous learning about ways to protect our environment.

Have you ever made a suggestion to the Co-op and what was it?

I have not made a suggestion about a product, but I am a part of our recently formed Community Outreach Committee. We aim to ensure the entire community knows we are here, that everyone is welcome to shop here and how the Co-op is active in the community. During the summer we hosted a cooking demonstration at the Mayfield Community Center with Simply Dynamite Catering and the Co-op also set up a table at the Mayfield Juneteenth Celebration to share about the new grocery store and our new Snap Match program.

What advice would you have for someone thinking about checking out the Co-op?

For anyone who has not shopped in or even stopped by to take look inside the store, I highly recommend you come on in and check us out. The Fredericksburg Food Cooperative is open to all!

Shiloh Baptist Church New Site Women's Ministry is hosting a Virtual Food Drive. It will be held from November 4 - November 30, 2021. We are asking for your support on behalf of Fredericksburg Regional Food Bank with this endeavor. Give what you can, every dollar counts.

To Donate, please go to their website: Shiloh Baptist Church New Site Women's Ministry Virtual Food Drive \(fenlv.org\) give what you can.
